Colleen Kaplan called the meeting to order at 11:08 AM. Members present were Barbara Armfield and Karen Currier.

Absent: Donna Mosher, Melissa Jordan and Sarah Cameron.

Also present: V. Schwarzmann, Senior Center Director and Ray Bull, Parks and Recreation Director

2. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

K. Currier made a motion, seconded by B. Armfield, to accept the minutes from the December 29, 2022 special meeting as submitted. All voted in favor.

3. ADDITIONS TO AGENDA

- Clean up and reorganize Senior Center and shed

4. DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION NEXT EVENT

Discussed having a Valentine's Day event that will include decorating heart shaped cookies. V. Shwarzmann noted there is a heart health program planned for February 14th. The Commission decided to have their event either before or after that program.

Discussed RiverEast News Bulletin ads and having accurate dates listed for programs and events. "Intro to Mahjong" will be held at the Senior Center on Wednesdays from 1:00 – 3:00 PM.

5. UPDATES FROM RAY BULL AND VI SCHWARZMANN

V. Shwarzmann, Senior Center Director reported the following:

- Donated medical equipment in the shed will be cleaned out in the next few weeks.

C. Kaplan noted the interim Town Manager informed her that work orders can be submitted to the Town Hall for Senior Center maintenance such as floor cleaning and lawn care. C. Kaplan requested all senior programs be listed under Senior Center News regardless of where the program is being held.

R. Bull, Parks and Recreation Director reported the following:

- Parks and Recreation is offering a trip to an upcoming UCONN basketball game. He added that he is open to developing new programs for seniors. If the commission has ideas for programs or knows of individuals with skills to lead a class, they should let him know.

C. Kaplan noted the commission will discuss program ideas at the February meeting.

6. DISCUSSION OF CHANGE TO MEETING LOCATION & TIME

C. Kaplan reported future meetings will be held at the Town Hall at 11:00 AM.
